

NAFF18 UPDATES

Our Sixth Year!

Get Involved!
Sponsor, Vendor, Volunteer
(724) 463-6110

THE WEEK/END AFTER LABOR DAY • STREET FAIR + LIVE MUSIC SATURDAY, SEPT. 8

The Northern Appalachian Folk Festival is a Downtown Indiana Event • NorthernAppFolkFest.org

HEADLINERS ANNOUNCED!

Continuing a tradition of bringing national acts, rising stars, and homegrown talent to Philadelphia Street for free, live performances, the NAFF steering committee is proud to announce its 2018 lineup. For more information on our artists, visit our website for bios and links. We'll also be warming up with playlists in the coming months so be sure to follow NAFF on social media.

SOPHIE B. HAWKINS Iconic singer-songwriter Sophie B. Hawkins is familiar to audiences for her hit single "Damn, I Wish I Was Your Lover" and her critically acclaimed, 1992 debut album Tongues and Tails, which earned her a Grammy nomination for Best New Artist.

WHEATUS New York-based rock band Wheatus, best known for their sing-along hit "Teenage Dirtbag." The 2000 single has appeared on many film and television soundtracks, and been covered by acts such as One Direction, Weezer, and Dashboard Confessional.

LUCY KAPLANSKY Part of the Greenwich Village folk scene renaissance while fresh out of high-school, Lucy Kaplansky's compatriots included Suzanne Vega, The Roches, Steve Forbert and John Gorka as well as her frequent duo partner Shawn Colvin – who eventually produced Lucy's 1994 debut album, "The Tide".

Our trio of headliners top another action-packed bill that includes the return of a Locally Made lineup - Dan Stonerook, Dead Lazarus, Post Traumatik, and The Shivers - plus familiar faces among these touring veterans The Cropdusters, Left Lane Cruiser, Hamell On Trial, and The Urban Pioneers.

WELCOMING 2018 SPONSORS

Thanking the First Energy Foundation, Rosebud Mining (Children's Alley), and First Commonwealth Bank (Children's Alley) for their support of NAFF18! Call Linda Mitchell at Downtown Indiana (724) 463-6110 to learn more about partnering with NAFF.

Spotlight On COAL HERITAGE

VENDORS WANTED

We're seeking the region's handcrafted and homegrown. Artists and vendors are invited to join us the Saturday after Labor Day in Downtown Indiana. The NAFF art committee is currently at work making the application process easier and more convenient. To request materials be sent to you, give us a holler with your preferred contact information:

NAFF.Vendors@gmail.com

RETURNING IN '18

Two popular exhibitors are slated to make repeat appearances at NAFF18.

The Pennsylvania Department of Military and Veterans Affairs will again send a mobile unit to provide benefits information and assistance to vets and their families. Meanwhile, the Wood Center at IUP will also be back and coordinating the log-sawing contest—a breakout hit with all ages at NAFF17.

Get social!
Find us on Facebook and Twitter for the latest updates
plus news
and links from around the region.

CHAIR POLICY REMINDER: NAFF is a street fair venue with outdoor stages and areas for shows, demonstrations, and other activities. We cannot guarantee seating. We recommend that our visitors who prefer – or need for health reasons – to sit during outdoor performances bring their own chairs. Thank you for helping keep our event free to attend and manageable for our volunteers.